

Illustrated Treasure Hunt Book Launched - Search for REAL Gold

OXFORD, February 20th, 2020 – A new 'armchair treasure hunt' book, The Hidden Sun, has been released in association with tourism website Banburyshire.co.uk. The prizes include gold, silver, precious stones and one-off artworks.

The 64 page book – available in paperback and ebook – features rich illustration, poetic verse and a mythical narrative of ancient legends, all set in the historical area of Banburyshire near the Cotswolds UK. The concept is to reconnect families, friends and individuals with a sense of discovery, the beauty of the outdoors and the use of the mind. The added bonus is the prospect of discovering hidden treasure.

Solve the 24 clues to find the location which leads to a password; submit both and the treasure is yours.

The hunt takes place around Banbury in the UK, close to Oxford, the Cotswolds, London, Warwick and Stratford-upon-Avon. Readers can solve the puzzles from their home anywhere in the world with the help of puzzle solving, online research and a little imagination.

Author, deviser and illustrator Benjamin Brewis, runs Firesnake Design – a graphic design and art concept studio. His tourism app was shortlisted for a Business Innovation Award, and his digital fine art has toured the globe with The Lumen Prize, being exhibited in galleries in London, New York, Singapore and Hong Kong.

The Hidden Sun* is available to buy or borrow on Amazon.

Visit banburyshire.co.uk/thehiddensun for further info on the book & hunt.

Please email contact@firesnake.com for press and media arrangements.

###